colorful stitched hoops are a fresh take on the artsy, handmade-looking jewelry trend. We love how they're intricately detailed and low-key at the same time.

● WHY WE LOVE IT: Her bags combine weathered leather and nautical hardware with tactile fabrics and beautiful floral embroidery. The results are playful, but sophisticated too.

Gwendolyn Carrié

● BACKGROUND: While spending 10 years as a financial advisor to big luxury goods brands, Carrié learned a ton about gorgeous shoes. So she made a career change to design her own.

● WHY WE LOVE IT: With luxe materials and simple shapes, her shoes couldn't be more polished—yet they have unexpected flourishes, like a rope-bracelet-style strap, that also make them very cool.

● PRICES: $295 to $595.
